

ATTENTION ALL 4th-6th GRADERS:

Have fun with writing and art in Awesome Authors & Artists Club!

Dear Parents and Students,

Come join us in a challenging and enriching after-school writing club! I teach various forms of writing in a fun environment that encourages hard work and taking pride in one's accomplishments. This workshop will provide the perfect chance to enrich the writing opportunities for the enthusiastic writer, or give the reluctant writer a chance to gain confidence and get extra help. While I focus on the creative aspect of writing, the grammar and organizational concepts I teach will be sure to carry over into your child's writing during the academic school day. For four months, we will cover topics such as:

- *strong sentence writing
  - *powerful paragraph writing
  - *exploration with points of view
  - *lessons in descriptive writing
  - *writing games
  - *story mapping/outlining
  - *short stories
  - *poetry
  - *group, partner, and individual projects
  - *vocabulary development
- *There will be excellent opportunities for leadership development and one-on-one help with small classes and mixed age groups!
- *Students will take home a "portfolio" of all work completed at the end of the session!

Dear Parents,

As some of you are aware, "Authors and Artists" has a blog: mrshuffsstuff.blogspot.com. This blog showcases some of the wonderful work from workshops past and present. I would appreciate your permission for me to use your child's work on our blog. It is very safe and anonymous, with no city/state or school mentioned. I use first names and grades of students only, so they can feel famous for their friends and family!

Thank you!

Laura Huff
